GRADUATES SCATTERED ALL OVER THE EARTH

WHERE FORMER STUDENTS OF SCHOOL OF MINES ARE NOW LOCATED

Dr. F. C. Lincoln, director of the Mackay school of mines of the University of Nevada, in addressing the alumni at their banquet in Tonopah Saturday night, informed the company that Tonopah has, with the exception of Reno, more graduates from the Mackay school of mines than any other town.

Reno leads with twenty. Then come the other towns as follows: Tonopah, 13; Carson City, 4; Virginia City, 3; Goldfield, 2; Elko, 2; Dayton, 2; other towns in Nevada, 1 to each, 12. California follows Nevada's total with 32. There are a total of 111 graduates now living in the United States. Those in other countries are: Canada, 5; Costa Rica, 1; Salvador, 1; Ecuador, 3; Gold Coast, 1; South Africa, 3; Java, 1. Eleven have died since graduation.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION CAR HERE

DOING RAILROAD SURVEY WORK FOR COMMISSION'S BOARD OF VALUATION

Pullman car, No. 44, of the interstate commerce commission is in the Tonopah yards and its occupants are engaged in work here for the government. The party is under the direction of C. N. Kast, who is a field engineer with headquarters at Barstow, Cal. He has four parties in the field. The other members are: E. W. Metcalf, McCandless Moffet, R. G. Head, E. R. Lampert, C. G. Corwine, O. D. Davis, Carl Nyman, W. H. McLaughlin, A. F. Bond, Paul Vandewynckle, A. E. McDonald and A. B. Hartley.

The work that this and other parties is doing is in compliance with the provisions of the railroad valuation act, which was passed in 1913. This law requires that the interstate commerce commission make valuation of all railroad property, comprising real estate, road bed and equipment, in the United States. Mr. Kast said to the Bonanza:

"We make an inventory of physical features on which prices will be placed later by the valuation officials in each district. The United States is divided into five districts and each is in charge of a member of the valuation board. The member of the board for this district is R. A. Thompson, with headquarters at San Francisco. He was formerly chief of the California railroad commission."

The party will complete its work here today and will leave tomorrow morning. The car in which they travel is fitted for eating and sleeping, as well as for office work.

CARD OF THANKS

Like the gleam of a star in a cloud swept night comes in our hour of darkest gloom the thought of the many kindnesses we have had bestowed upon us, and the many words of sympathy, as we were bereaved. We, the family of the late Edward Clifford, Jr., desire to express to all our heartfelt gratitude and appreciation.

ATLANTA IS MAKING REGULAR SHIPMENTS

PROPERTY NOW SHOWING LARGE TONNAGE OF LOW GRADE MILL ORE

Ore of shipping grade is being sent from the Atlanta mine to the sampler of the Western Ore Purchasing company at the rate of a carload every other day. While the product is not of high grade, it is yielding a fair profit and conditions in the stope on the 1580 and 1620 foot levels, from which this ore is taken, afford ground for the hope that a considerable quantity of profitable ore can be produced here, says the Tribune.

Development work between the 1580 and 1750 foot level continues to block out large areas of lower grade, copper-bearing ore, and it is believed that this material can be treated successfully by flotation. Work in the winze below the 1750 foot level has been suspended for the present, and additional pumping facilities will be required to permit of making good progress at greater depth. With a local market for its low-grade product the Atlanta will become an important producer.

SUNDAY SERVICES IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

GREAT PREPARATIONS MADE FOR CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL FRIDAY EVENING

(Communicated)

At Sunday school there was a full attendance. The Sunday school Christmas tree and exercises Friday evening at 7:30 sharp, are absorbing topics just now. It is to be hoped the parents and friends will turn out generously and help the little folks to have a good time.

Let us all remember the Great Giver of Gifts, and His great gift to men and so prompted by His spirit let us give of our substance and of our selves to make glad those hearts that would otherwise be sad.

The morning congregation was small. I wonder if it is a case of too much preparation for Christmas.

The sermon in the evening was from the text "Cast thy bread upon the waters for thou shalt find it after many days." The central thought of the sermon was that we should do good without hope of reward, but that in some way the reward will come.

The Christmas music by the choir will be rendered next Sunday evening. Come out and enjoy a treat.

It seems like old times to see our former organist, Miss Hazel Perry, back in her place again.

FATHER IMPROVING

Mrs. Joe Kennison received wires yesterday from her husband stating that considerable improvement has taken place in his father's condition and that there is some hope for the old gentleman's recovery.

MISS ROLETTO SINKING

Miss Mary Roletto, who underwent a capital operation night before last, has been unconscious since 10 o'clock last night and no hope is entertained of her recovery.

U. OF N. ALUMNI HOLD INITIAL BANQUET

Tonopah are those from the year 1895, of which Samuel C. Durkee was a member, to the baby class just graduated in 1915.

President Archer W. Hendricks, when called on, gave the most forceful talk of the evening, outlining his hopes for the alumni association of Tonopah and his plans for the future of the university.

He analyzed the structure of a university under the two heads—the human element, consisting of its board of regents, its faculty, its students, and its alumni, and the material element—its buildings and its facilities. He showed that a university could exist without the material element, but without a faculty, without students, and without a loyal sympathetic alumni, there could be no results. That the faculty of Nevada's university was wholly above par was presented with great force and effect.

In all, 508 diplomas have been issued by the various schools since the university's founding in 1886, and the attendance has grown from 28 in that year, to 387, the registration this year. There is at present one alumnus for every 180 population in the state, and Pres. Hendrick took occasion to point out the influence the alumni could exert.

The various activities of the extension department were touched upon at length. These included the reclaiming of arid lands through a search for artesian water, the helping of farmers through the personal visits of specialists, the prospectors' short course, and the mining laboratory. In all these activities the alumni can do effective work in bringing the attention of the people toward the university.

The alumni can also do a service to their alma mater by providing practical experience for new graduates, thereby fitting them for Nevada conditions, and creating a demand for their services.

Before the party dispersed the college song "U. of N. So Say," and the college yell given.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATRE

The program at the Butler this evening will consist of a Pathe Weekly of Current Events, and scenes of interest from all over the world, and a five-reel Universal feature, written by Lois Weber, author of "Hypocrites." It is a drama you will never forget, being beyond question one of the greatest pictures ever produced anywhere. The story is just what the name implies and shows how much damage can be done by a little idle gossip and scandal told by people who know nothing of the circumstances, and with only one end in view—that of doing some damage. The story of "Scandal" opens with the male gossip at the club gazing from the window and making comments on the passerby. Green, a member of the club lives in the apartment beneath that of William Wright, broker. Wright is in business difficulties, but his associates have not yet learned this, as his wife's father has promised financial help. Daisy, Mr. Wright's stenographer, is in his confidence, and Mrs. Wright is jealous of any woman associated with her husband in business. From here it starts and everybody is drawn in, resulting finally in a bankruptcy, suicide and murder, together with wrecking the lives of several innocent people. It is a picture you will never forget.

Tomorrow, Paramount travel pictures, and "The Moth and the Flame," Clyde Fitch's powerful drama with a Famous Players cast. Save all your coupons and do not miss the drawing on Friday night.

All toys, games, dolls and similar lines of holiday goods will be closed out at from 25 to 50 per cent off. Splendid new novelties for gifts. Rotholz Bros. See us. —Adv. 9124
